Named 1973 State Honorary Christmas Seal Campaign Co-Chairmen

Dr. Charles W. Scott, retired superintendent and medical director of Piedmont State Hospital and Earl Hamner, author of the novel Spencer's Mountain and "The Waltons" on television, have been appointed Christmas Seal Campaign co-chairmen. Dr. Scott, born in Rockingham County, was educated at the University of Virginia Academic and Medical Schools. He was graduated in 1923 and interned at the University of Virginia Hospital. He conducted the first mass chest x-ray survey in the South at Burkeville for 30 years. When the sanatorium was converted to Piedmont State Hospital in 1967 he continued to serve as superintendent and medical director until his retirement in 1973.

He was recipient of the Douglas Southall Freeman Award from the Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, its highest award, in 1960. He holds the Award of Merit from the Central Virginia Turercolosis and Respiratory Disease Association in 1972 for service to the people and the association.

"Dr. Scott is recognized for his years of service as a volunteer with the state and local associations having served as president for two terms of the Central Virginia Tuberculosis and lung disease work are known throughout the State of Virginia," said Dr. L. E. Wells, president of the Virginia Lung Association, Central Region.

He added that "Earl Hamner, a native of Virginia, born at Schuyler in Nelson County, stands for all things dear to the hearts of Virginians - family devotion, love for the Commonwealth, and a sincere caring for fellow beings. We are fortunate in having him as 1973 co-chairman, and can thank the late Nora Spencer Hamner, his aunt, for sparking his interest in the work of the Lung Association. For more than 40 years she was executive director of the Richmond Tuberculosis Association, now the Richmond Area Lung Association.

On October 12, Dr. Scott and Hamner attended the Virginia Lung Association's fall board of directors meeting at the Holiday Inn, West in Richmond, when they were officially introduced as "Honorary Chairmen". The two honor guests spoke to members and guests of the association at the luncheon meeting.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Oct. 16, 1973

Editor, Times-Virginian
Appomattox, Va. 24522

Dear Editor:

"The most pleasant, yet one of the hardest things to do is to adequately say "thank you" to everybody after a job well-done. In this case, I am referring to the Bike-A-Thon held October 14 which raised over $2,600 for the Appomattox County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

Appomattox County can be proud of the way its citizens got behind this event to make it the most successful ACS Bike-A-Thon to date in Virginia. Interestingly enough, only $1,700 was raised on this event last year in all of Virginia.

Again, thank you for your time, talents and generous support.

Sincerely,
Judy Pollard
Bike-A-Thon Chairman

"Project - Downtown Appomattox"

A committee structure has been set up to study ways of possible funding for the "Project - Downtown Appomattox" that has been presented to the citizens of Appomattox County through articles in this newspaper.

When the committees are ready with reports they will be presented to the citizens of this county for consideration.

It is no way is the Appomattox County Board of Supervisors nor the Town Council of Appomattox obligated financially. If the project is accepted ways of funding will be presented to the people and at that time it will be decided if and when work toward the project will begin.

When other information is available, you will read about it in the Times-Virginian.

Garden Club To Meet Monday

The Appomattox Garden Club will meet Monday, October 22 at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the Farmers National Bank, Triangle Plaza Shopping Center.

F. W. Wright, Jr. of Lynchburg will speak on "Azaleas in the Landscape Plan".

The Artistic Exhibit will be an arrangement of fall flowers and/or leaves, fruits, vegetables and nuts.

The horticulture will be chrysanthemums and dahlias.
